Oxnard found the pace too fast, but ran well up to his best form. Leedsville was overweighed. He will do well on this track.

Time, 2:34, 48, 1:004, 1:07.
Winner—B. c. by Candelmas—Lady Reel.
Start good. Won easily. Hapsburg was best and likes the Eclipse course. Manlius is a slow beginner. He closed strong at the end of a stormy journey. Chappaqua, lucky and strongly handled, finished well. The Burlington Route stopped badly at the end, and likes a shorter trip. Strangest swerved badly the last eighth, but ran surprisingly well. Tip Gallant showed well. MacLeod of Dare ran very green.
Scratched—Tophet, 115.
Overweights—Tip Gallant, 1 pound.
Hapsburg, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Manlius, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Chappaqua, show, 2 to 1.

Time, 24, 48, 1:004, 1:124.
Winner—B. c. by Eothen—Maori.
Start fair. Won driving. The first three all displayed gameness and high class form. The best all around race horse probably won. Manuel was an easy fourth after being interfered with near the finish. Black Venus had a very stormy journey. Autumn lacked speed. Toluca was probably short. Rhinelander stopped unaccountably. Martimas couldn't be kept straight and swerved all over the track.
Ethelbert, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Kentucky Colonel, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Himtine, show, 8 to 5.

Time, 2:51, 1:03, 1:164, 1:41, 2:06.
Winner—Ch. c. by Hanover—Keepsake.

Start good. Won driving. Handball was best today and well handled. Whistling Con, like the winner, also showed the utmost gameness and stamina over the trying hill course. Sailor King closed strong at the end. George Keene was exhausted by pacemaking up the hill but ran finely. Bangle showed unexpected stamina and resolution. Warrenton looked the winner at the eighth pole but showed lack of condition when he fell away. Laverock had bad luck all through. Martha II. ran well. Candleblack appeared to be galloping the first part but stopped in the stretch and was pulled up. Decanter was outclassed.

Handball, place, 10 to 1; show, 5 to 1. Whistling Con, place, 3 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Sailor King, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. c. Hanover—Constantinople.
Start straggling. Won easily. Sanders was easily the best and thrown in, if handicapped on his best form. Swiftmas ran finely and finished gamely under good handling. Irish Reel, weakly ridden, was easily second best. St. Callatine was interfered with at the start, but ran a game race. Algol was off badly, but closed fast at the end. Royal Stag is apparently not good. Scratched—Handball, 109; Geisha, 102; Toluca, 92.

CHICAGO, ILL., OCTOBER 2-3, 1898.

IMP'S GREAT SPEED.

At Harlem yesterday the track was a trifle heavy from the rain of Friday night, but the going was firm and safe. The wind-up of the intermittent spell of Harlem racing was signalized by a card of unusual strength, the chief feature of which was the Speed Stakes, $1,000 added, three-quarters of a mile, for all ages, worth to the winner $1,210, to the second $500, and to the third $100. The conditions were:—Two-year-olds to carry 90 pounds; three-year-olds, 108; four-year-olds and upwards, 113; penalties and allowances.

No starter carried weight for age, Frank Bell having off two pounds; Mary Black, nine; Eva Rice, seventeen; Traverser and Imp, four each. Off at the first attempt, Frank Bell quickly put two lengths between himself and Imp and Mary Black, racing like a double team. The two-year-old widened the gap at the far turn and here Imp showed in front of Mary Black. Beginning on the upper turn Rutter urged along the favorite, the pace being very fast. Into the homestretch, however, the colt retained his lead, and not until a sixteenth further along did the distance lessen. Nearing the final furlong Rutter called upon Imp in earnest and with the gad swished before her eyes, she put forth all her splendid powers and before the betting ring was reached, the stake was seen to belong to Mr. Harness. Once reaching Frank Bell, there was no contest, the colt having done his utmost, stopping. The favorite eased up somewhat, passed the judges first by two lengths in the wonderful time (track considered) of 1:13. Traverser, running strongly at the finish, beat Mary Black for third money. Rutter and Imp, upon returning to the stand, were loudly cheered, while the sturdy youngster that made her show herself, passed in unnoticed. It must be remembered that Frank Bell gave Imp two pounds. He is certainly a remarkable colt.

The betting ring was jammed as on Derby Day when the prices went up for the first race. One guesser of the twenty-one bookmakers, not knowing Lucky Star, chalked up 10 to 1 and was immediately nailed. Six to 1 showed on many boards for a moment only, the price falling like values on Black Friday, so that 11 to 5 was the post quotation. Lucky Star, with the reputation of covering three-quarters in 1:13 at Montana, was first past the post, after getting off well toward the rear to a good start for the off but Czarowitz. Lew Hopper came fast the latter part of the journey and finished second, two lengths behind Lucky Star. Kime, another newcomer with a record of several wins at St. Louis, finished third, close up. It is said that a stranger bet "Hops" Laudemann $500 at 5 to 1 on Lucky Star.

At the third trial Mr. Dwyer sent the handicap for two-year-old horses away to an even break for all except Goebel. Tulla Fonso, tagged by Boney Boy, opened a gap of three lengths on Miss Marks and Espionage, they racing alongside at the far turn. Miss Marks now shot out from the favorite and Ezell's filly appeared to falter as if interfered with, she was eight lengths behind Tulla Fonso when the latter turned for home. Bloss now set Espionage going and hugging the inside rail she came on so strongly that catching Tulla Fonso at the final sixteenth she passed on to victory untouched. Tulla Fonso easily beat Boney Boy.

The one and one-eighth miles selling race was a lively betting affair. The start was delayed by the sour Alvarado II and when he eased up his temper, first Gold Band and then Elusive spoiled good starts by being pulled up. Off well together Gold Band, Uarda and Elusive were in the front rank passing the judges. Alvarado II, Barataria and Gold Band were the leaders at the half mile ground. Gold Band and Elusive were first into the homestretch. A grand rally opposite the betting ring and Topmast and Sunburst, a pair that had been gradually stealing up became prominent. Riding vigorously Sloan got Topmast home in front in one of the best of finishes, with Uarda second and Sunburst third.

The curse of light weights in racing was never seen more markedly than when with five starters only, Mr. Dwyer was unable to effect a start under fifteen minutes, during which time the horses had never once been straightened up by their feeble jockeys. Plantain went out in front, and making the backstretch Found ran a close second, The Devil just behind. At the half mile ground Don Quixote was eight lengths worse than The Devil. Found led on the turn, but on sufferance from The Devil. When the last eighth was reached The Devil was galloping in front and when J. Reiff went after his whip Don Quixote swerved badly, and when he was stopped by the fence and forced to run home straight it was too late. The Devil won by an open length. Found ran one of her bad races and was beaten by Plantain for third place.

Opinions were divided as between What er Lou and Hugh Penny, but when the last race was over the bookmakers paid off on Cherry Leaf. Rutter rode the winner splendidly, trailing to the half mile ground, then keeping the inside rail. Hugh Penny had been raced in front by Donna Rita, so, although in the lead at the last 150 yards, he had nothing left with which to finish. What er Lou here came up, and had the favorite beaten a head, when from the rear Cherry Leaf joined the pair. It was a grand finish for all three, they leaving all the others far behind. Rutter's superior strength and skill enabled Cherry Leaf to win.

The owner of Frank Bell was highly elated and said that his colt would have won on a dry hard track and expressed the opinion that Frank Bell would win the Inaugural Derby at New Orleans.

The arc lights in the betting ring were set going for the first time this year when the speculators were busy on the last race.

The Covington crowd felt heavily on Elusive, "Rome" Respass losing $500.

Winner—Br. g. by Friar Tuck—Keepsake.
Post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second, third and fourth driving even harder. Lucky Star showed himself to be a useful horse. He was all tangled up at the start and was obliged to take the extreme outside on the backstretch. Beauchamp rode him well and never made a move until straightened away for home. He opened up a gap of about two lengths between the eighth and sixteenth posts but was tiring badly at the finish, and Lew Hopper would surely have beaten him in a few more strides. The early pace was fast. This was the cause of Silver Set and ABE Furst stopping. Cherryflame was jammed into and cut off on the first turn. Roger B's race was below the mark. There was a lot of bumping and interference during the race.
Scratched—Good Friend, 102; Missioner, 107; Inspector Hunt, 105; Astor, 104; Wilson, 105; Inuendo, 103.
Overweights—Cherryflame, 3 pounds; Roger B., 2; St. Alfonse D., 2.

Winner—B. f. by Inspector B—Sun Maid.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly at the end; second and third whipped out. Espionage was the best and again showed herself to be a filly of good class. She was giving away a lot of weight, and added to this was sharply cut off on the far turn. Bloss was lucky in not being shut off by Tulla Fonso in the straight. Tulla Fonso dislikes a route. Five furlongs is as far as she likes to go. Boney Boy was outclassed. He ran an honest race but weakened at the end. None too well handled Miss Marks did nicely.
Scratched—Canace, 101; Judge Tarvin, 40.
Overweights—Goebel, 2½ pounds.

Winner—Ch. g. by Topgallant—Essay.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won in a terrific drive. It was a spectacular finish and one of the prettiest races seen at the track. Topmast came with a phenomenal rush through the stretch. He looked hopelessly beaten on the far turn and it was only a powerful ride that got him up. Uardia's race was a good one. She too was compelled to come wide on the stretch turn. Sunburst, last all the way, made a strong bid in the stretch. He was bumped and jostled a lot and could not get through. Carnero was also pocketed all through the stretch. Elusive, played for a good thing, ran all around her field on the first turn and was much used on the backstretch, naturally she stopped. Keep Gold Band in mind. She ran a corking race.
Scratched—Pinar del Rio, 89; Prince Blazes, 95; Overland, 104; Lucid, 92; Winslow, 98; Charley Christy, 115.
Overweights—Topmast, 2 pounds; Elusive, 3; Alvarado II, 4.

Off at first break to a fair start. Won well in hand. Imp was the best and again showed her excellent qualities. She had a hard nut to crack in Frank Bell, but disposed of him just as easily as she has of all others recently. Frank Bell set a sizzling pace. The first half stopped him to a certain extent, although he hung on nicely at the end. Traverser, outrun the first part of it, was gaining ground at the end. My Black went all to pieces. She seems to have staled. Eva Rice might as well have remained in the stable.
Scratched—Dave Waldo, 105; Eugenia Wickes, 107; Azucena, 105.

Winner—B. c. by Major Richards—Patagonia.
Post 22 minutes. Start fair. Won in a mild drive; second swerving and out to the last ounce; third and fourth doing their best. It was a false run race. The long delay had a telling effect on Found and Plantain. The best horse in the race was Don Quixote. Little Reiff rode him poorly. He lost a lot of ground by going wide on the far turn and came wide enough in the stretch to let a chariot through. About the eighth post he tried to use his whip on the Don. Naturally he dropped his head and the colt swerved clean to the inside. He was clear of every one and caused no interference. The Devil is an honest little horse. He was well ridden too. Found was worn out at the post and tired badly after going hardly three-quarters.
The Devil, place, even.

Winner—B. c. by Athelstan—Sunbeam.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second and third were driving also. What er Lou was best. He lost through carelessness. Beauchamp rated along in a good position all the way. When the stretch was reached he shot by Hugh Penny as though he was tied. Instead of going on about his business he took What er Lou back with the intention of making a close fit of it with Hugh Penny. In the meantime Rutter stole up on the inside with Cherry Leaf, and when the eighth post was reached was almost a length in front. Beauchamp now started to work What er Lou hard and was gaining fast, and would have won in another stride. The cuppy going stopped Hugh Penny to some extent. Donna Rita and Storm King both tired badly. Considering the condition of the track it was a fast race, lowering the track record a quarter of a second.

Scratched—May W, 92.
Overweights—Donna Rita, 4 pounds; Hugh Penny, 2½.
